

Key Vocabulary

document	Newspapers, diaries and letters are all documents.
museum	A place you can visit with information about local places and people.
portrait	A painting or photograph of a person.
research	When you find out about the past.
source	Different source of information are photographs, newspapers and documents.

Local Heroes

Key Takeaways

People can be considered heroes for many different reasons.
They may have been brave in a battle.
They may have helped other people.
They may have discovered or made something important.
Our local heroes may or may not be known by people in other parts of the country.
We can research our local heroes by looking at images like photographs or paintings like portraits.
We can find out about local heroes by looking at objects like medals, toys or clothes.
We can find out about local heroes by reading documents like newspapers, diaries or letters.
We can find out about local heroes by visiting places like houses, churchyards, or museums.
It is a good idea to use more than one type of source of evidence to reach a conclusion.

Questions

- What makes someone a hero?
- What can images tell us about our local heroes?
- What can objects tell us about our local heroes?
- What can documents tell us about our local heroes?
- Who is our greatest local hero?

Timeline

Gunpowder Plot 1605

Great Fire of London 1666

Living memory

1600

1700

1800

1900

2000

Can you add your local heroes to the timeline?